Black Box Corporation (the "Company") did not file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2007 ("Form 10-Q") by August 9, 2007, the required filing date.

As previously announced, the Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee") of the Board of Directors of the Company, with the assistance of outside legal counsel, is conducting an independent review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices and related accounting for stock option grants. As a result of the review, and due to the allocation of Company personnel and resources to such review, the Company is in the process of completing the audit of its financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 and, therefore, has not filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 ("Form 10-K").

At the present time, the Company plans to file the Form 10-K on or about August 13, 2007. As previously announced, on August 14, 2007, the Company will release its financial results for its fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2007. The Company further expects to file its Form 10-Q on or about August 16, 2007.

This Form 12b-25 contains "forward-looking statements" under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 including those that involve risks and uncertainties related to the review by the Audit Committee and the filing of delinquent reports on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. Any forward-looking statements contained in this Form 12b-25 are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these forward-looking statements by the fact they use words such as "should," "anticipate," "estimate," "approximate," "expect," "target," "may," "will," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe" and other words of similar meaning and expression. One can also identify forward-looking statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. Although it is not possible to predict or identify all risk factors, they may include the timing and final outcome of the ongoing review of the Company's stock option grant practices by the Audit Committee, including the related Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") investigation, shareholder derivative lawsuit, NASDAQ process regarding listing of the common stock and tax matters, the timing of the completion and results of the audit of the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007 and any actions that may be required or taken as a result of such review, SEC investigation, shareholder derivative lawsuit, NASDAQ process, tax matters or completion of the audit. We can give no assurance that any goal, plan, date or target set forth in forward-looking statements can be achieved and readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements, which speak only as of the date made. We undertake no obligation to release publicly any revisions to forward-looking statements as a result of future events or developments.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

The Company has not filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No
